

January Nausicaa: Valley of the Wind  A book about the environment or with a strong environmental message	February The Tale of Princess Kaguya  A book with an Asian MC	March Laputa: Castle in the Sky  A book set in another world
April Kiki's Delivery Service  A book with magic	May Spirited Away  A book about identity	June My Neighbour Totoro  A book with siblings
July Whisper of the Heart  A book about a craft	August Princess Mononoke  A book with a kickass heroine	September The Cat Returns  A book with an animal companion/MC
October Howl's Moving Castle  A book with an old MC	November Porco Rosso  A book set during a war	December When Marnie was There  A book from your childhood

Rules

- Read one (or more) book(s) per month that fit the description in the table of prompts (but don't be afraid to bend it slightly if you're struggling – I'm not strict).
- All formats and re-reads count.
- If you post a review of the book, link back to this page. I'd love to know what you thought of it.
- Make a wrap-up post when you're finished to show how you got on.
- The challenge takes place between 1st January 2023 and 31st December 2023. You can start at any time within that period.
- (Optional) Watch the Ghibli film associated with the prompt.
- If you're posting about it on social media, use the tag #GhibliReadingChallenge